NOTE. The annotations, which in some cases follow the titles of theses and are placed within parentheses, have been contributed by the professors who reported the theses. A few dissertations which are considered to be of pertinent interest have been included from years previous to 1950. Except when indicated, theses are not available for consultation in the Missionary Research Library, and inquiries concerning a title should be addressed to the seminary or school in which the dissertation or thesis originated. As a matter of policy, M.R.E. theses are not included.

A notation, consisting of volume number, date, and page, has been added to various entries to designate the availability of abstracts of doctoral dissertations, published in Dissertation Abstracts; a Guide to Dissertations and Monographs Available in Microfilm, University Microfilms, Inc., Ann Arbor, Michigan. Following this reference may be found the "Publication," or the Library of Congress number, to be used when ordering a microfilm.
